

Translation rights guide

Highlights October 2020 to May 2021

New and forthcoming titles in:

- Ageing and Gerontology
- Business and Management
- Criminology
- Environment and Sustainability
- Human Geography
- Law
- Politics and International Relations
- Science, Technology and Society
- Social and Public Policy
- Social Research Methods
- Sociology

Spotlight titles

World rights available

Data Lives How Data Are Made and Shape Our World

Rob Kitchin

PB: 9781529215144 £18.99 208 pages

3 Feb 2021 Science, Technology and Society

Rob Kitchin explores how data-driven technologies have become essential to society, government and the economy. Blending scholarly analysis, biography and fiction, he demonstrates how data influence our daily lives.

Rob Kitchin is a Professor in the Maynooth University Social Sciences Institute, Ireland. He is author/editor of a number of books about technology and society and is a recipient of the Royal Irish Academy's Gold Medal for the Social Sciences.

World rights available

Radical Empathy Finding a Path to Bridging Racial Divides

Terri E. Givens

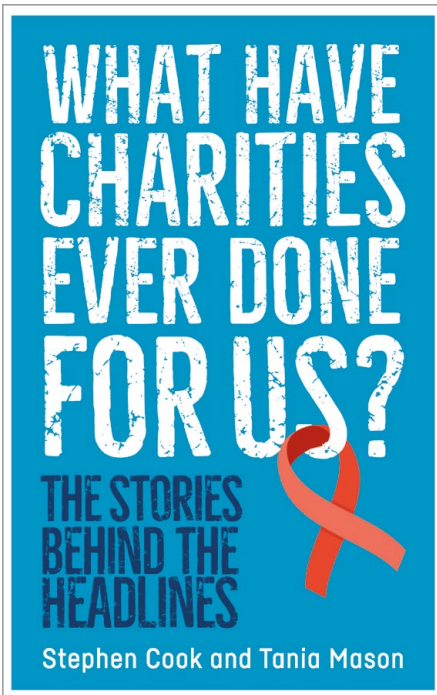

HB: 9781447357247 £19.99 208 pages

11 February 2021 Sociology

Renowned political scientist Terri Givens calls for 'radical empathy' in bridging racial divides to understand the origins of our biases, including internalised oppression. Deftly weaving together her own experiences with the political, she offers practical steps to call out racism and bring about radical social change.

Terri E. Givens is the CEO and Founder of The Center for Higher Education Leadership. A renowned political scientist, she is the author of books and articles on immigration policy, anti-discrimination politics and comparative race politics.

Spotlight titles

World rights available

What Have Charities Ever Done for Us? The Stories Behind the Headlines

Stephen Cook and Tania Mason

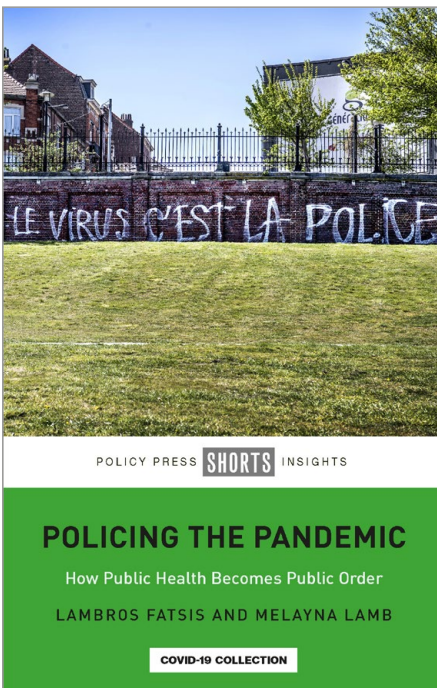

PB: 9781447359883 £14.99 376 pages

1 April 2021 Social and Public Policy

What Have Charities Ever Done for Us? uses case studies and interviews to illustrate how charities support people and communities, foster heritage and culture and pioneer responses to crucial social, ethical and environmental questions.

Stephen Cook is a journalist and author with extensive experience in national newspapers and magazines, including 18 years at The Guardian. He has published five novels and two non-fiction books.

Tania Mason is a journalist, copywriter, editor and events producer with more than 25 years' experience across various industries, most recently charities and civil society. She currently edits Governance & Leadership magazine.

World rights available

Policing the Pandemic How Public Health Becomes Public Order

Lambros Fatsis and Melayna Lamb

PB: 9781447361077 £9.99 160 pages

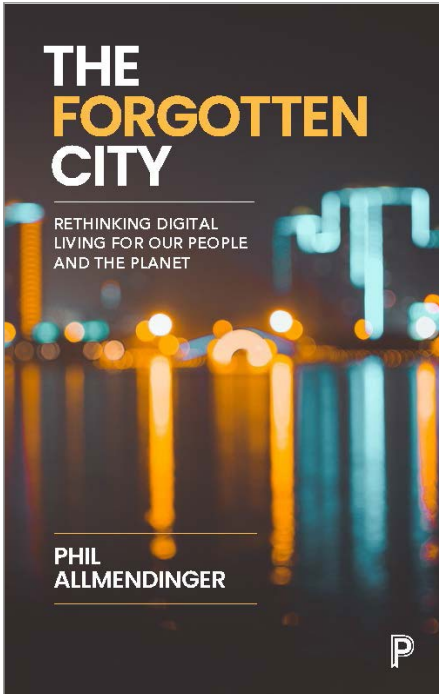

1 April 2021 Criminology

Written in the context of the #Blacklivesmatter protests, this book explores why law enforcement responses to a public health emergency are prioritised over welfare provision and what this tells us about the state's criminal justice institutions.

Lambros Fatsis is Lecturer in Criminology at the University of Brighton specialising in police racism and the criminalisation of Black music subcultures. His co-authored book with Mark Carrigan, The Public and Their Platforms: Public Sociology in an Era of Social Media is published by Bristol University Press.

Melayna Lamb is an independent writer and academic based in London and author of the forthcoming A Philosophical History of Police Power published by Bloomsbury Academic.

Spotlight titles

World rights available

The Forgotten City Rethinking Digital Living For Our People and the Planet

Phil Allmendinger

HB: 9781447356011 £19.99 264 pages

1 May 2021 Environment and Sustainability

Phil Allmendinger takes a critical approach to the role of 'smart' in future cities and the relationship with city development. Considering how technology can support active citizenship, he challenges the commercial drivers of big tech and warns that these, not developments for 'social good', may dominate.

Phil Allmendinger is Professor of Land Economy and Fellow of Clare College at the University of Cambridge. From 2015 to 2020 he was Head of the School of the Humanities and Social Sciences and Deputy Vice Chancellor. Phil is a chartered planner and surveyor and advises governments around the world on future cities, urban issues and smart city development. He is the author of numerous books and papers on these issues.

World rights available

Broken Justice Stories From a Failing Legal System

Jon Robins and Daniel Newman

HB: 9781529213126 £19.99 232 pages

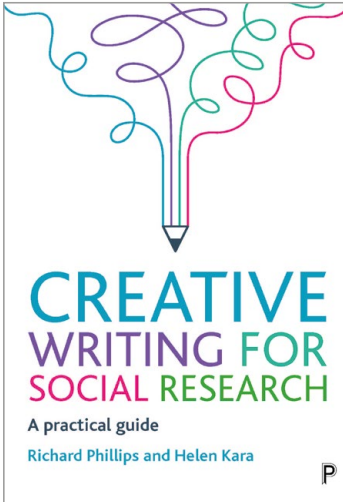

1 May 2021 Law

Dan Newman and Jon Robins combine investigative journalism and academic scholarship to examine how the lives of people suffering problems with benefits, debt, family, housing and immigration are made harder by cuts to the civil justice system.

Jon Robins is an award-winning freelance journalist, author and lecturer at Winchester University. He has written about justice issues for over 20 years for The Guardian, The Times, Independent on Sunday, The Mail on Sunday and The Observer, as well as two books on miscarriages of justice. He is the founder of The Justice Gap website.

Daniel Newman is Senior Lecturer in Law at Cardiff University. He researches and writes extensively on topics around access to justice, including numerous journal articles, and a bestselling book on the impact of legal aid cuts.

Textbooks

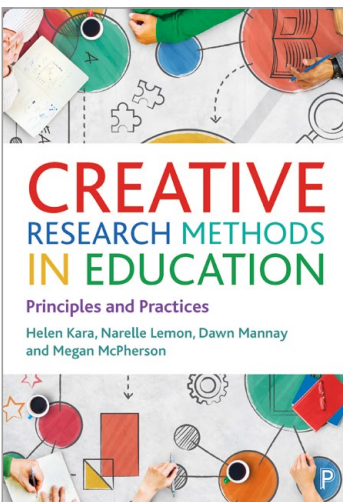

World rights available

Creative Writing for Social Research A Practical Guide

Richard Phillips and Helen Kara

PB 9781447355984 | £27.99 | 20 January 2021 | 184 pages | Social Research Methods

Inviting beginners and more experienced researchers to explore new ways of writing, this book introduces readers to creatively written research in a variety of formats including plays and poems, videos and comics. It not only gives social researchers permission to write creatively, but also shows them how.

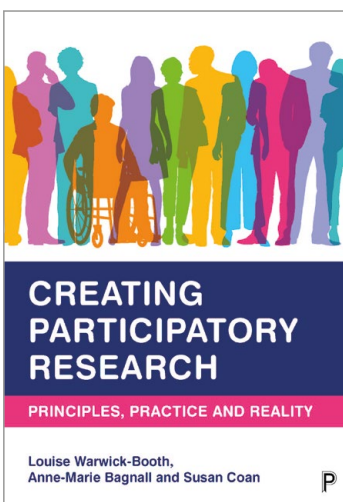

World rights available

Creative Research Methods in Education Principles and Practices

Helen Kara, Narelle Lemon, Dawn Mannay and Megan McPherson

PB 9781447357070 | £27.99 | 16 March 2021 | 208 pages | Social Research Methods

Co-authored by an international team of experts across disciplines, this important book is one of the first to demonstrate the enormous benefit creative methods offer for education research. It illustrates how using creative methods, such as poetic inquiry, theatre and animation, can support learning and illuminate participation and engagement.

World rights available

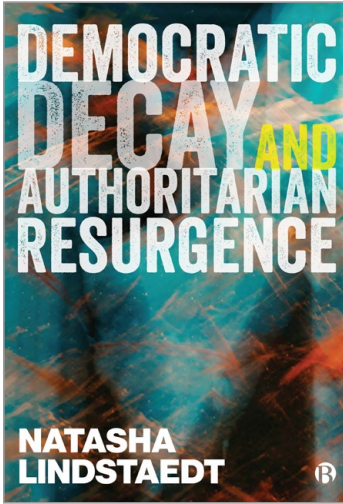

Creating Participatory Research Principles, Practice and Reality

Louise Warwick-Booth, Anne-Marie Bagnall and Susan Coan

PB 9781447352372 | £27.99 | 1 April 2021 | 184 pages | Social Research Methods

This valuable textbook provides an accessible, pragmatic how-to guide for using participatory methods in research. Providing practical advice and real-world examples, and packed with reflective questions, top tips and suggested further reading, this book will be an essential resource for students and researchers alike.

Textbooks

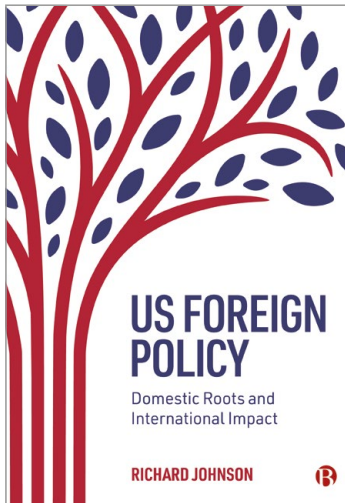

World rights available

Democratic Decay and Authoritarian Resurgence

Natasha Lindstaedt

PB 9781529210392 | £24.99 | 1 February 2021 | 232 pages | Politics and International Relations

Drawing on real-world developments, and including international case studies, this book introduces students to the concept and causes of democratic decay in the modern world.

World rights available

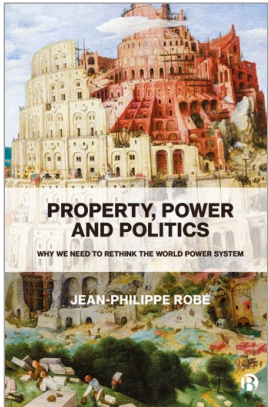

US Foreign Policy Domestic Roots and International Impact

Richard Johnson

PB 9781529215366 | £24.99 | 1 May 2021 | 288 pages | Politics and International Relations

This textbook provides a valuable introduction to the construction and application of US foreign policy in the modern era, encouraging readers to think about how ideas, institutions and goals have been at work in the foreign policy of recent presidential administrations.

Academic trade

World rights available

Property, Power and Politics Why We Need to Rethink the World Power System

Jean-Philippe Robé

This revolutionary work rethinks globalisation as a power system feeding from, and in competition with, the state system. In illuminating how the concentration of property rights within corporations led to the rejection of democracy and to the rise in inequality, Robé offers a clear pathway to a fairer and more sustainable power system.

PB: 9781529213171 | 5 Oct 2020 | 416 pp
£24.99 | Law

World rights available

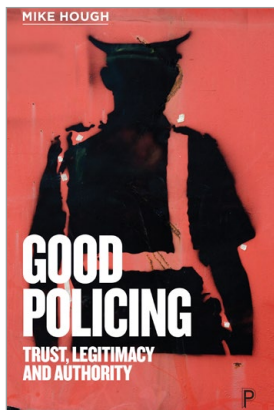

Beer and Racism

How Beer Became White, Why It Matters, and the Movements to Change It

Nathaniel G. Chapman and David L. Brunzma

Beer in the United States has always been bound up with race, racism and the construction of white institutions and identities. This unique book carves a much-needed critical and interdisciplinary path to examine and understand the racial dynamics in the craft beer industry and the popular consumption of beer.

PB: 9781529201796 | 14 Oct 2020 | 228 pp
£22.99 | Sociology

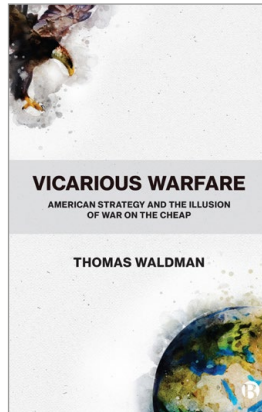

World rights available

Good Policing Trust, Legitimacy and Authority

Mike Hough

Renowned criminologist Mike Hough considers how the police service might build trust, legitimacy and compliance with the law in this important book. He challenges conventional thinking on crime, contrasts 'hard' and 'soft' policing styles and offers a fresh approach that secures compliance with the law through ethical policing.

PB: 9781447355076 | 25 Nov 2020 | 160 pp
£14.99 | Criminology

World rights available

Vicarious Warfare American Strategy and the Illusion of War on the Cheap

Thomas Waldman

This compelling account charts the historical emergence of vicarious warfare and its contemporary prominence. It contrasts its tactical advantages with its hidden costs and potential to cause significant strategic harm.

HB: 9781529206999 | 20 Jan 2021 | 224 pp
£25.00 | Politics and International Relations

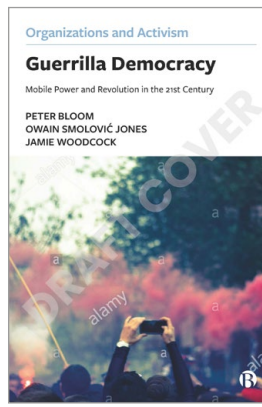

World rights available

Why Face-to-Face Still Matters The Persistent Power of Cities in the Post-Pandemic Era

Jonathan Reades and Martin Crookston

What do cities do that suburbs or countryside can't? This book argues for the value of the 'right' location during and after the pandemic, and explains why ICT has transformed companies, cities and towns, and yet also changed little about the underlying challenges of business life, giving readers essential tools for the future of places.

PB: 9781529216004 | 18 Mar 2021 | 176 pp
£19.99 | Human Geography

World rights available

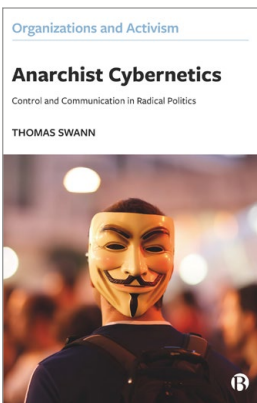

Guerrilla Democracy Mobile Power and Revolution in the 21st Century

Peter Bloom, Owain Smolović Jones and Jamie Woodcock

Combining cutting-edge theories with empirical research, this timely book offers an in-depth analysis of current platform-based radical movements to show how digital technologies revolutionise political and economic organising. This is an invaluable contribution to the emerging literature on the relation of technology and society.

PB: 9781529205640 | 1 May 2021 | 200 pp
£26.99 | Business and Management

Research monographs

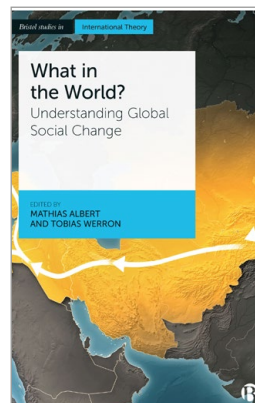

Anarchist Cybernetics
Control and Communication in Radical Politics
Thomas Swann

Igniting a new field of scholarly inquiry, this pioneering book introduces cybernetic thinking to politics and organisational studies to explore the continuing development of the radical idea of participatory democracy within organisations.

World rights available

HB: 9781529208788 | 19 Oct 2020 | 190 pp
£75.00 | Business and Management

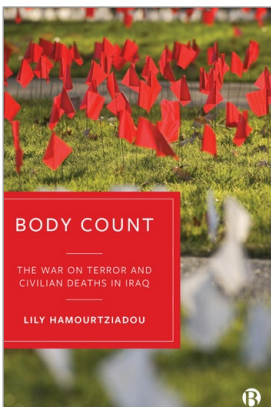

What in the World?
Understanding Global Social Change

Mathias Albert and Tobias Werron

Moving beyond the limits of parochialism, this book develops a truly global perspective on social change. It brings together renowned scholars from across disciplines and provides a range of promising theoretical approaches, analytical takes and substantive research areas that offer new vistas for understanding change on a global scale.

World rights available

HB: 9781529213317 | 16 Dec 2020 | 272 pp
£75.00 | Politics and International Relations

Body Count
The War on Terror and Civilian Deaths in Iraq
Lily Hamourtziadou

Lily Hamourtziadou's important analysis of the scale and causes of civilian deaths in Iraq since the US-led coalition's 2003 invasion sheds new light on the War on Terror. From early fighting to the departure and return of troops and the rise of ISIS, she tracks the cost of conflict and constructs an insightful human security approach to war.

World rights available

PB: 9781529206739 | 16 Dec 2020 | 208 pp
£24.99 | Politics and International Relations

Basic Income Experiments
Theory, Practice and Politics
Jurgen De Wispelaere and Evelyn L. Forget

This book offers a detailed review of completed, ongoing and planned basic income experiments in order to examine the value of and complications inherent in conducting such experiments. It provides best-practice guidelines for future social experimentation and policy development.

World rights available

PB: 9781447346852 | 1 Feb 2021 | 160 pp
£12.99 | Social and Public Policy

China Risen?
Studying Chinese Global Power
Shaun Breslin

Drawing on an extensive range of Chinese-language debates and discussions, this book explains the roles of different actors and interests in Chinese international interactions, and how they influence the nature of Chinese strategies for global change.

World rights available

PB: 9781529215816 | 18 Feb 2021 | 288 pp
£24.99 | Politics and International Relations

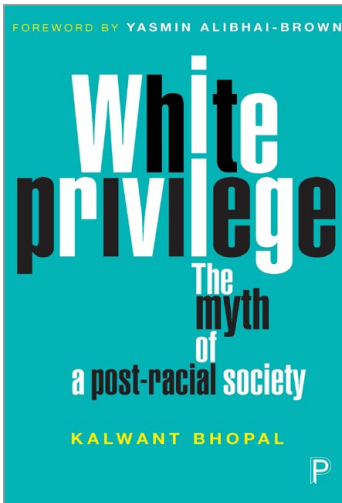

The Environments of Ageing
Space, Place and Materiality
Sheila Peace

This book provides the first UK assessment of environmental gerontology, contextualising personal experience in varied spaces and places and considering the value of age-segregated and intergenerational living, the meaning of home, and how local-to-global challenges constantly interact.

World rights available

HB: 9781447310556 | 1 May 2021 | 272 pp
£75.00 | Ageing and Gerontology

Backlist highlights

World rights available

White Privilege The Myth of a Post-Racial Society

Kalwant Bhopal

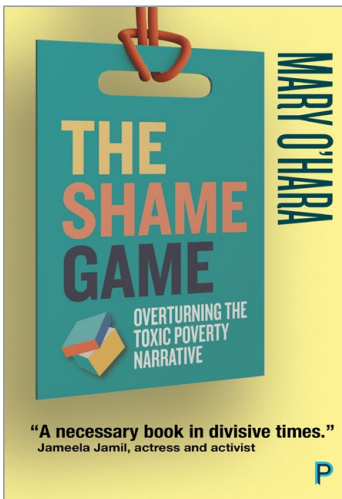

PB 9781447335979 | £13.99 | 6 April 2018 | 216 pages | Sociology

“An excellent investigation into whiteness and white privilege in contemporary society.” American Sociological Association

Why and how do those from black and minority ethnic communities continue to be marginalised? Bhopal explores how neoliberal policy making has increased discrimination faced by those from non-white backgrounds. This important book examines the impact of race on wider issues of inequality and difference in society.

- Featured in Emma Watson’s anti-racist reading list on Vogue
- Interviewed on the Reasons to be Cheerful podcast
- Article in The Guardian Education
- Interviewed on BBC Midlands

Other publicity includes coverage in The Guardian, BBC News, Discover Society, The Conversation, British Journal of Sociology of Education, LSE British Politics and Policy blog and the Times Higher Education.

World rights available

The Shame Game Overturning the Toxic Poverty Narrative

Mary O’Hara

PB 9781447349266 | £12.99 | 27 February 2020 | 232 pages | Social and Public Policy

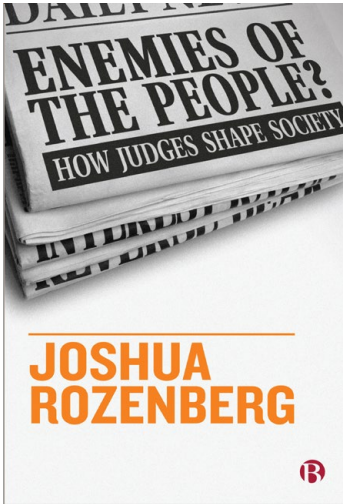

“A necessary book in divisive times.”
Jameela Jamil, actress and activist

Drawing on a two-year multi-platform initiative, this book by award-winning journalist and author Mary O’Hara asks how we can overturn the portrayal of poverty once and for all. Crucially, she turns to the real experts to try to find answers – the people who live it.

- Interviewed on the Getting Curious with Jonathan Van Ness podcast
- Reviewed in The Washington Post
- Extract published in The Guardian
- Reviewed in Prospect magazine

Other publicity includes coverage in Marketplace.org, Booklaunch magazine, Transforming Society, Throwing Shade podcast, and the Byline Times.

Backlist highlights

World rights available

Enemies of the People? How Judges Shape Society

Joshua Rozenberg

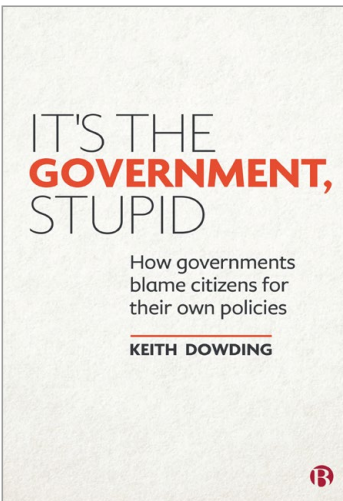

PB 9781529204506 | £14.99 | 21 April 2020 | 240 pages | Law

“Every bit as masterful as you’d expect. Incisive, gripping, timely. I can’t recommend it enough.” Secret Barrister

When newspapers reported a court ruling on Brexit, senior judges were condemned as ‘enemies of the people’. But they still ruled that an order by the Queen on the advice of her prime minister was just ‘a blank piece of paper’. Joshua Rozenberg asks how judges can maintain public confidence while making hard choices.

- Reviewed in The Times Literary Supplement
- Interviewed in LEDUCATE
- Reviewed in the New Law Journal
- Reviewed in The Critic

Other publicity includes coverage in The Law Society Gazette, Scottish Legal News, Booklaunch magazine, Prospect magazine, Legal Cheek, Counsel magazine, and The Commonwealth Lawyer.

World rights available

It's the Government, Stupid How Governments Blame Citizens for Their Own Policies

Keith Dowding

PB 9781529206395 | £19.99 | 2 September 2020 | 210 pages | Politics and International Relations

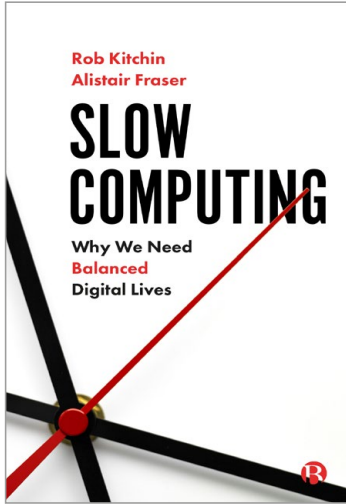

“An important contribution that deserves wide recognition.”

Martin Lodge, London School of Economics

Governments conveniently blame social problems on their citizens, placing too much emphasis on personal responsibility. This book shows that ‘nudging’ citizens to better behaviour simply isn’t good enough and explains why we should hold our politicians responsible for social problems.

- Article in The Conversation
- Article in The LSE British Politics and Policy blog
- Bristol University Press webinar
- Author video

Backlist highlights

Chinese rights sold

Slow Computing Why We Need Balanced Digital Lives

Rob Kitchin and Alistair Fraser

PB 9781529211269 | £14.99 | 24 September 2020 | 224 pages | Science, Technology and Society

“We urgently need strategies for reclaiming control over our digital lives. Slow Computing offers exactly that. A powerful manifesto for a kinder, calmer, and fairer digital future.” Mark Graham, Oxford University

Is it possible to experience the joy and benefits of computing in a way that asserts individual and collective autonomy? Drawing on the ideas of the ‘slow movement’, Slow Computing sets out numerous practical and political means to take back control and counter the more pernicious effects of living digital lives.

- Interviewed on The Last Word (2:06:37 to 2:14:08)
- Reviewed on Irish Tech News
- Book website

Translation rights

For all translation queries, please contact Jo Greig and Georgie Aldridge:

Jo Greig

e: jo.greig@bristol.ac.uk

Georgie Aldridge

e: georgie.aldridge@bristol.ac.uk

Bristol University Press, 1-9 Old Park Hill, Bristol, BS2 8BB

Browse our full range of titles by subject or download our catalogue at bristoluniversitypress.co.uk.

Bristol University Press is unique: it is a young university press with a bold vision that emerges out of Policy Press's long-held, critically acclaimed reputation as a key publisher on social issues, with an ethos of social justice and respect for diversities.

We are committed to publishing the highest-quality scholarship in the social sciences and aligned disciplines and want our work to make a positive contribution, from the advancement of ideas through to practical implementation.

